

THE 5/20 PROJECT

For God so Loved He Gave...

Kingdom Principles 137

A Question for 5/20 Influencers

As you have started down this journey of real-time compassion, preparing your heart each day and asking the Holy Spirit to highlight someone to bless — someone to receive both a tangible gift of $20 and the sincere message:

“Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you.”

Pause for a moment and ask yourself this question:

How committed would you be each day if you knew that your obedience in that moment could truly change a life?

What if that simple act of compassion, that quiet moment of listening to Holy Spirit that willingness to stop for one person was actually presenting that individual with a doorway into the Kingdom of God?

You may never fully know what is happening in that person’s heart.

But consider what may be taking place in that moment:

- A person who feels invisible suddenly feels seen.
- A person who believes they are unlovable hears that Jesus loves them.
- A person who has felt forgotten experiences kindness without condition.
- A person who has been blinded by pain or shame begins to see light again.

Sometimes the greatest Kingdom moments happen quietly, between two people, in a place where Heaven touches earth for just a few seconds.

The truth is:

You may be the first living evidence that day that Jesus is real to them.

And while the $20 may help with a practical need, the greater gift is the message carried with it:

You are seen.

You are loved.

God has not forgotten you.

So, the question becomes:

If you knew that your willingness to listen, stop, and give could help open someone's heart to the Kingdom of God...

How ready would you be tomorrow to ask again:

How Holy Spirit would you serve me to serve others today.

"Holy Spirit, who would you like me to see today?"

Father,

Thank You for seeing me and loving me.

Thank You for inviting me to participate in Your Kingdom today.

Holy Spirit, quiet my heart so I can hear You clearly.

Open my eyes to the people around me.

Help me notice the one You are highlighting today.

Give me courage to stop when You prompt me.

Give me compassion that is genuine and pure.

Remove fear, hesitation, and distraction from my heart.

Let my words be simple and sincere:

"Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you."

May the small gift I offer become a doorway for someone to experience Your kindness and Your presence.

"Jesus, let my life today reflect Your love.

If even one person begins to see Your light because I listened and obeyed, then this day will have eternal meaning."

Here I am, Lord.

Send me...

Amen
