

THE 5/20 PROJECT

For God so Loved He Gave...

Kingdom Principles 111

In Scripture, “Impartation” is not just the transfer of information — it is the sharing or transmission of something spiritual from one person to another by God’s design. It often involves blessing, strengthening, commissioning, or activating grace.

Let’s define it biblically and then connect it directly to The 5/20 Project.

1. What Is Impartation in the Bible? A Sharing of Spiritual Grace

Romans 1:11

“For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you.”

The Greek word Paul uses implies sharing or transmitting something already alive in him for the strengthening of others.

Key Idea:

Impartation strengthens identity and faith.

Through the Laying on of Hands

2 Timothy 1:6

“Fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.”

Paul reminds Timothy that something was activated through relational contact and intentional blessing.

Key Idea:

Impartation can awaken what God has already placed within someone.

Blessing and Spiritual Transmission in the Old Testament

Numbers 27:18–23

Moses lays hands on Joshua and commissions him before Israel.

Key Idea:

Impartation transfers authority, encouragement, and confidence in God’s calling.

The Holy Spirit Given and Shared

Acts 8:17

“Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.”

In Acts, impartation is connected to activation, empowerment, and visible transformation.

Biblical Definition of Impartation

Impartation is the Spirit-led sharing or releasing of God's grace, encouragement, authority, or gifting into another person for their strengthening and alignment with God's purposes.

It is:

- Relational
- Intentional
- Spirit-initiated
- Strengthening

The Significance for The 5/20 Project

The 5/20 Project is not merely giving money.

It is compassion impartation.

When someone gives $20 and says:

“Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you.”

They are not transferring currency alone.

They are releasing:

- Identity (You are seen.)
- Worth (You matter.)
- Assurance (You are loved.)
- Hope (God is near.)

That is biblical impartation in action.

1. It Strengthens the Receiver (Romans 1:11 Principle)

The $20 becomes a vehicle for strengthening faith and dignity.

You are not trying to convert.

You are not correcting.

You are not preaching.

You are strengthening.

2. It Activates the Giver

Just as Paul stirred Timothy's gift, the 5/20 Project stirs:

- Courage
- Sensitivity to the Holy Spirit
- Real-time obedience
- Identity-based compassion (not performance-based giving)

The giver experiences impartation too.

Compassion flows through them — and in flowing through them, it deepens in them.

3. It Mirrors Kingdom Transmission

In Scripture, impartation flows:

- From relationship
- Through touch or proximity
- With intention
- For strengthening

The 5/20 Project does the same:

- Relationship (real-time connection)
- Proximity (in person)
- Intention (“Lord, highlight someone.”)
- Strengthening (“Jesus sees you.”)

Why This Matters Theologically

Impartation reveals something profound:

God does not merely distribute blessings from heaven.

He often moves through people.

The 5/20 Project becomes a modern expression of:

- Laying on of hands (without manipulation)
- Prophetic encouragement (without spectacle)
- Apostolic strengthening (without hierarchy)

It is simple.

But biblically profound.

At The 5/20 Projects core:

“We are connected to God” — not trying to get connected. From connection flows quiet authority.

In conclusion:

“Biblical impartation often flowed from recognized authority.

But under the New Covenant, authority flows from union with Christ.

The 5/20 Project is not about possessing power over someone —

it is about participating with the Holy Spirit who gives freely to all who ask.”

The 5/20 Project must never feel superior.

It must bring a humble invitation as led by Holy Spirit.
