

THE 5/20 PROJECT

For God so Loved He Gave...

Kingdom Principles 111-3

5-Minute Teaching 1

“Authority, Access, and the Heart of Impartation”

When people hear the word impartation, it can sound heavy.

It can sound like something only certain leaders carry — something that flows from rank, title, or spiritual status.

And in Scripture, we do see moments where impartation flows through recognized authority.

In Romans 1:11, Paul says:

“I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you.”

Paul carried apostolic authority. He knew his calling.

In Numbers 27, Moses lays hands on Joshua and commissions him before Israel. That was governmental authority given by God.

So yes — biblically, impartation often carried authority.

But here is what we must understand:

In the New Covenant, authority is no longer restricted to office.
It flows from union.

Jesus said in Luke 11:13:

“How much more will the Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him.”

That changes everything.

The Holy Spirit is not given to the elite.
He is given to sons and daughters.

Authority now flows from:

- Being in Christ
- Being filled with His Spirit
- Being aligned with His heart

Not from position — but from relationship.

So what does this mean for The 5/20 Project?

It means we are not walking around thinking:

“I possess something you don’t.”

We are walking around knowing:

“Holy Spirit gives freely, and I get to participate.”

That is a completely different tone.

The 5/20 Project is not top-down impartation.

It is Spirit-to-Spirit encouragement.

When you hand someone $20 and say:

“Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you.”

You are not acting as a spiritual superior.

You are acting as a willing conduit.

You are not the source.

You are participating with what the Spirit already desires to release.

And here is the beautiful part:

The authority required is not rank.

It is surrender.

It is the quiet confidence that:

- I am connected to God.
- I am loved.
- The Spirit is already moving.
- I can trust His prompting.

That is New Covenant authority.

It is relational.

It is humble.

It is secure.

In fact, the more secure we are in union with Christ,
the less we feel the need to appear powerful.

The 5/20 Project protects this purity.

Because it is simple.

It is gentle.

It is non-performative.

It is not spectacle.

It is compassion.

And compassion is one of the clearest evidences of the Spirit's presence.

So here is the truth:

Biblical impartation does carry authority.

But under the New Covenant, authority flows from identity — not title.

And the Holy Spirit gives freely to all who ask.

The 5/20 Project is not about possessing power.

It is about participating in love.

And when love flows through you,
that is real authority.

5-Minute Teaching 2

“Empire Hierarchy vs. Kingdom Flow”

One of the frustrations many people carry — even subconsciously — comes from living inside an empire system.

The world teaches hierarchy like this:

- Power rises upward.
- Authority controls downward.
- Position determines value.
- A flawed boss can taint the whole culture.

We have all experienced this.

A broken leader.

A harsh authority figure.

A superior whose insecurity shaped the environment.

And when that happens, it creates distortion.

Because in empire systems, power concentrates at the top.

And when the top is unhealthy, everything below feels it.

But the Kingdom of God is different.

In Matthew 20:25–26, Jesus says:

“You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them... It shall not be so among you.”

That is a direct confrontation of empire hierarchy.

Jesus did not deny authority.

He redefined it.

In the Kingdom:

- Authority serves.
- Greatness kneels.
- Power washes feet.

Think of John 13, where Jesus washes the disciples' feet.

The One with all authority chose the lowest posture.

Why?

Because Kingdom authority flows from love — not position.

Now here is where this connects to your frustration.

In empire thinking, a flawed boss can distort everything beneath them.

But in the Kingdom, the source is not a human leader.

The source is the Spirit.

And the Spirit is perfect.

This is why The 5/20 Project is so powerful.

It bypasses hierarchy.

It doesn't require:

- Title
- Stage
- Platform
- Permission from a flawed system

It requires only this:

"Holy Spirit, highlight someone."

The authority flows directly from union with Christ — not from an organizational chart.

That protects Kingdom purity.

Because even if a human structure is imperfect,
the Spirit remains undefiled.

In empire:
Authority is positional.

In the Kingdom:
Authority is relational.

In empire:

Control flows downward.

In the Kingdom:
Love flows outward.

And here is the freeing truth:

A flawed boss can taint a workplace.

But a flawed believer cannot taint the Holy Spirit.

When you participate in the 5/20 Project, you are not representing an empire system.

You are participating in a Kingdom that is not fragile.

You are not the source of perfection.

You are connected to the Source.

And that removes pressure.

It removes hierarchy anxiety.

It removes superiority.

You are simply allowing perfect love to move through imperfect vessels.

That is the beauty of it.

The frustration with worldly hierarchy is real.

But the Kingdom does not operate on empire rules.

It operates on surrendered hearts.

And when compassion flows Spirit-to-Spirit in real time, that is Kingdom perfection moving through human weakness.
