

THE 5/20 PROJECT

For God so Loved He Gave...

Kingdom Principle 157

The 5/20 Voice

The 5/20 Project is more than an act of generosity. It is a way of living. It is learning to slow down long enough to hear the whisper of Holy Spirit and then responding with simple acts of love that reveal the heart of Jesus.

At the center of every encounter is one message:

“Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you.”

Those six words are often more valuable than twenty dollars. The money simply becomes a doorway for someone to experience being seen, valued, and loved by God.

The world teaches that money is the currency of success, power, and security. The Kingdom teaches something altogether different.

The currency of the world is money.
The currency of the Kingdom is love.

Money can buy many things, but it cannot heal a lonely heart, restore hope, forgive sin, or reveal the Father's affection. Love does. The twenty-dollar bill simply carries the love of Christ into someone's moment of need.

Every morning we begin with a different question. Rather than asking God to bless our plans, we pray:

“Holy Spirit, how are You going to serve me today so I can serve others?”

This simple prayer changes our posture. We stop striving and begin expecting. We become available instead of busy. We learn that ministry begins with receiving before it ever becomes giving.

Stop. Rest. Receive.

Stop long enough to notice.

Rest in who you already are in Christ.

Receive everything the Father wants to pour into you.

Only then can you truly give.

Just as our bodies continually breathe in oxygen before breathing out carbon dioxide, our spiritual lives function the same way.

You breathe in oxygen before you exhale carbon dioxide.

Likewise, You can't give what you didn't receive.

Every act of compassion begins with first receiving His love, His peace, His joy, His compassion, His wisdom, and His direction.

The 5/20 Project is not about trying harder to be like Jesus.

It is about allowing the life of Christ already within us to flow outward naturally.

We give from who we are in Christ, not to become someone we are not.

This is the beauty of impartation. We first receive from Him.

Then we freely give what we have freely received.

Sometimes Holy Spirit highlights a stranger in a grocery store, a waitress, a mechanic, a cashier, or someone sitting alone.

Why? Because there is a soul attached to that $20.

The money is never the destination. The person is.

Every twenty dollars carries an opportunity to communicate eternal value.

The gift simply opens a conversation that says,

"Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you."

After the encounter, our response is not pride but gratitude.

"Thank you for letting me be part of your breakthrough."

Whether that breakthrough is emotional, financial, relational, or spiritual, we recognize that God did the work. We were simply invited into His story.

The 5/20 Project is never about individual achievement.

It's not a me thing. It's a we thing.

We belong to Christ. We belong to one another.

We become the Body of Christ expressing His love together throughout our communities.

Jesus Himself explained this Kingdom reality:

"Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of Mine, you did for Me." (Matthew 25:40)

Every encounter becomes an opportunity to love Jesus by loving the person standing in front of us.

The invitation is beautifully simple.

Be prepared. Carry the seed. Listen. Love. Encourage. Pray. Celebrate.

Then... prepare to do it again tomorrow.

Becoming a 5/20 Influencer

The impartation of becoming a 5/20 Influencer is so much more than simply receiving five $20 bills to give away.

It is the beginning of learning to trust God in a new way.

The five twenty-dollar bills are not the mission—they are the seed.

Like pouring a small amount of water into an old hand pump to prime a dry well, that initial seed begins something much greater. It breaks through hesitation, fear, and self-consciousness until living water begins to flow naturally through an ordinary believer.

Soon the focus is no longer on money. The focus becomes on hearing Holy Spirit.

Seeing people the way Jesus sees them. Receiving His love daily.

Then freely giving what has already been received.

Over time, many influencers discover they no longer need someone to provide the next twenty dollars. Their own hearts have changed. They gladly become the seed themselves because they have experienced the joy of partnering with God.

This is the naturally supernatural experience of impartation.

What begins with five $20 bills can become a lifestyle.

One person influences another. One act of obedience inspires another.

One encounter becomes hundreds. Hundreds become thousands.

A grassroots movement has begun—not built on programs or personalities—but on ordinary people who have learned to stop, rest, receive, and then love as they have been loved.

That is the heart of the 5/20 Project.

Not simply giving money. But multiplying love. Because every person matters.

Every encounter matters. Every act of obedience matters. Every $20 carries a soul.

And every influencer becomes another expression of the heart of Jesus saying,

“Jesus sees you. Jesus loves you.”
